ACTING PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Hawkwood!

Welcome to September! I hope everyone has been enjoying Hawkwood's flower displays and had the opportunity to visit some of our community parks or strolled through the Community Garden over the summer. Our garden recently received some fruit trees from The City of Calgary and it will be fun to watch them grow in the seasons to come.

As the summer winds down and the Hawkwood Community Association (HCA) sets its sights on fall and winter, I wanted to provide some information on bookings at the Hawkwood Community Park.

Following two successful HCA-sponsored events in June 2023 (Neighbour Day, soccer/Little League season wrap-up), the HCA had a number of requests over the summer to book private events at the park. While the HCA was pleased with the interest in the new park, it immediately became clear that we were not ready to manage these types of requests. As we looked at how other parks and facilities in Calgary manage bookings for private events, it was evident that our volunteer-led organization currently did not have the capacity or processes in place to enable this type of use.

In the coming months, the HCA Board of Directors will be considering what resources, processes, and terms or conditions would be needed to enable private bookings at the park. Until the board makes a decision on this matter, only HCA-sponsored events or programs will be held at the park, where HCA volunteer organizers must be on site to oversee them.

We will, nonetheless, continue to offer HCA members, as a membership benefit, the opportunity to book certain park amenities for their household's personal use. Please note, however, that it is the HCA's expectation that members are booking these park amenities for their household's use, not for larger groups. More information on members' booking options can be found on our website, www.hawkwoodca.com. Future changes to the booking process, if any, will be posted on HCA's website.

The HCA appreciates your understanding, patience, and compassion as we continue working hard to explore more booking options for our Community Park.

Please send me an email at president@hawkwoodca.com if you have any questions, comments or want to learn more about volunteering for the HCA.

In gratitude and kindness,

Michele del Valle

What Happened 50 Years Ago to Preserve Nose Hill?

The Calgary Council of Women wanted a legacy. In 1973, the City created the park after a lengthy debate. Council rejected a development application when communities favoured a major natural environment park. "Citizens for Nose Hill" presented a "Citizens' Brief." Then a steering committee produced the "Nose Hill Design Brief."

A rezoning challenge was only one of the obstacles because much of the land was privately owned. It was urgent to preserve it because some was already sold to developers, with a parcel to a homebuilder.

Community leaders and concerned citizens collected over 5,000 signatures on a petition opposing the rezoning. They organized a march along John Laurie Boulevard in defence of Nose Hill. There was even a children's petition, and their voices were heard.

City Council voted against any rezoning. However, the City still needed more time to buy up the land. The Supreme Court of Canada gave Calgary the right to purchase land on Nose Hill at its own pace. The provincial government agreed and declared that the Nose Hill lands be retained as a public open space in perpetuity.

Hawkwood Community Park Booking Elements

Hawkwood Community Park Update

On September 22, 2023, Hawkwood Community Park will be officially 20 months old. A mere baby in terms of community infrastructure, it has quickly become the community gathering space that we hoped it would be.

At only 20 months old, we are still working on building a strong foundation for the park so it can be used and enjoyed by the community for many years to come. Work includes resolving construction deficiencies with our contractor (Wilco), creating maintenance checklists for each element in the park, and looking at making changes to areas of the park that could work better based on how we see the park being used.

We are already gearing up for our winter season, which of course involves our community rink. Our rink is maintained by a great team of community volunteers. If you are interested in helping with the rink for the 2023/2024 season, email us at rink@hawkwoodca.com. No experience required and training is provided!

NEW THIS YEAR

Snack Shack!

This year non-profit community organizations and groups will be able to book the "snack shack" at the Hawkwood Community Park to sell treats as a fundraising opportunity.

To book, email programs@hawkwoodca.com

The snack shack cannot be booked online

The poster features a colorful illustration of a snack shack with a red and yellow striped awning, a green balloon, and a sign that says 'Snack Shack!'. The shack is on a red base with a yellow sign that says 'Snack Shack!'.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Well, it’s been a hot, fun summer and now the kids are going back to school. I can’t believe how quickly summer flew by!

Our September will continue to be busy. We’re starting up a Stich & Chat group in Citadel. This group will meet Tuesdays from 1:00 to 4:00 pm, starting on September 5, at the Citadel hall. So, if you have an interest in knitting, crocheting, or stitching, please come out and join this social group and if you have any questions, please email dal4@citadelca.ab.ca.

Other September events include a Used Book Sale on September 15 and a Thanksgiving Centerpiece Workshop on October 5. You can learn more about these events at www.citadel.ca.ab.ca.

We have had some turnover on our board and we are seeking a sports director, volunteer coordinator, and treasurer. If you are looking to meet some new people and are committed to keeping Citadel a great place to live, please contact president@citadelca.ab.ca.

Lastly, I want to remind you that the Citadel Community Association Hall is available to rent. If you are looking for a venue for a birthday, anniversary, or Christmas party, complete the rental request form on the website: <https://www.citadelca.ab.ca/CCA/index.php/rentals/rental-inquiry>.

Citadel ELM Update

(Enhanced Landscape Maintenance)

2023 has been a busy season! Not only did we have record temperatures right out of the gate, but they seem to be hanging on. What does this mean for our landscapes? We will notice some of our medians and park turf going dormant and the grass will start turning brown to conserve its root system.

Watering will continue for our pots and entry features into September. Once we have our first frost, the annuals that we have planted will start failing. This is when we will start preparing for our winter seasonal arrangements.

This season in Citadel, we lost a lot of our mature trees due to drought and disease. If you notice a City tree close to your home that's not looking great, give it a little water. We have experienced hotter than usual weather in Calgary for the last three years and because of this, some of our mature trees are suffering. The City of Calgary follows a water conservation program so their watering in our community is sparse.

As a community, we will be looking into more waterwise perennials for our beds as well as a trial for pollinator areas throughout the community, to give our bees some extra help.

Our much-loved Gazebo Park should be receiving a fresh coat of paint this season; we are all looking forward to this.

It has been brought to our attention that some residents have spotted creeping bell flowers in the community beds as well as fox tail grass, which is harmful to pets. We are working with our landscaper on removing both of these plants.

Also, if you have been noticing the missing 'entry letters' throughout the community, we are working on that as well! Unfortunately, due to the massive cost to replace the letters, we will not be able to purchase new letters, but we hope to tidy up what we have left. We also hope to reaffix what we have left to deter the theft.

If you have any questions about your ELM program or becoming a member of the Citadel Community Association and supporting all the wonderful events that we host, please contact us!

Welcome back to school! If you're a parent like me, you know that September can be a busy but exciting time of year. This month, we're offering tips on preparing for school and launching new projects for your business.

Catch up on Our Home and Small Business Webinar Series

Are you looking to renovate your space, but don't know where to start? Maybe you want to start a home business, but all the regulations are making your head spin. Not to worry! We have a library of webinars to help you navigate the permits needed to get your project up and running. New webinar topics will be launching this month, so visit our video series and stay in the know by visiting calgary.ca/webinar.

Tips for Preparing Children for Emergencies

With kids returning to school, now is the perfect time to review your home emergency preparedness plan so that your family is ready for anything. As parents, there are lots of things that we can do to prepare our little ones and keep them safe. Here are four key steps that we can all take to help prepare for an emergency:

1. Talk to your kids about disaster risks in Calgary.
2. Include them in your household's emergency planning.
3. Look for opportunities to learn more about emergency preparedness.
4. As a family, walk through how to prepare your home for an emergency.

The Ready Squad e-course was designed to teach kids about Calgary's disaster and emergency risks, how they can prepare, and how to stay safe during an emergency. Children can also download the Junior Weather Forecaster's Challenge – a fun and creative way for everyone to learn more about the weather and its effects in Calgary.

Visit calgary.ca/ReadySquad to find out more.

Let's keep in touch! You can contact my office at Ward2@calgary.ca.

The parliamentary session is on break until mid-September. I enjoy spending summertime in Calgary where I see many people at community events. Thanks to the local organizations for inviting me to participate, I had fun serving breakfast and engaging in conversations about issues that matter to you.

The current government continues to add fuel to the inflationary fire by increasing the carbon tax which raises the price of just about everything. On July 1, a second carbon tax called the Clean Fuel Regulations came into effect. These regulations will cause the cost of fuel to increase. There's no rebate for this new tax.

According to the Parliamentary Budget Officer, the tax will hit lower income families hardest, because people with lower incomes spend a higher proportion of income on necessities like home heating, transportation, and transported goods (such as food), making it a regressive measure.

There are better, more effective ways to reduce emissions than a tax plan, including Carbon Capture, Utilization and Storage (CCUS), hydrogen, nuclear, new emissions control technologies, and globally replacing coal with responsibly produced Canadian resources.

A Conservative government would repeal both carbon taxes and focus on better technology and displacing higher foreign emissions to meet Canada's global responsibilities.

Constituents are welcome to contact me with concerns related to federal policy. Feedback from constituents is critical and helps me know what constituents think about matters under federal jurisdiction.

If you are experiencing a delay in government services, and your application has passed the current processing time, my staff may be able to assist. The service standards vary over time, particularly for immigration-related applications, so please check processing times online.

It remains my honour to represent you at the House of Commons as your Member of Parliament.
