News from the Friends of Nose Hill

by Anne Burke

Some features produce a positive response in visitors, as a focus for passive recreation, education, and interpretation; they remain opportunities for interpretation of bedrock themes in the park. Among the landscape features are large sandstone boulders several metres across. Those in north slope coulees may contain fossil clam shells, as remnants of a wave cut terrace which tumbled onto valley glaciers.

The Nose Hill pre-glacial gravels in the eastern portion of the Hill extend throughout the hilltop. In the Burnco gravel pit - and the slopes leading to this area from 19 Street and from Charleswood Drive - several trails and junctions in the south-facing areas are where exposed gravel from the Hill use in the 1960s and 70s would have been visible unless remediation was done with nurse and native grasses, after re-rooting foot traffic while the repair was undertaken.

A review of land uses of Nose Hill revealed that areas more severely damaged by vehicles, horse and cattle grazing, and gravel extraction were slowly regenerating. Although rutted trails remained, some already had grass growing in them due to less traffic. Ravine trails were heavily overgrown by tall grasses, thistles, and nettles, so that people used them less.

Firefighting, weeding, and controlled burns with vehicles damaged the plateau and slopes above the Porcupine Valley bike path. Widened and two-track trails are from social use; trail braiding on steeper hillsides due to wet, icy, or poor conditions. An on-hill project was raking to prevent new desire lines. Work was needed on the old motorcross routes up the bluff south of Porcupine Valley and along the Many Owls Valley Road where the trails had been washed out or deeply grooved. Pedestrian use of old vehicle roads slowed regeneration and remediation was warranted.

Medieval Tinder

Wearing your heart on your sleeve is more than just a phrase. Did you know that in the Middle Ages, love was a fashion statement? Back then, singles played a name-tag game, pinning their Valentine's name on their sleeves for a week! Talk about wearing your heart on your sleeve - literally!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Hawkwood!

I hope everyone had a good start to 2024 last month and that you're looking forward to what the rest of the year has in store for you.

This month, while we may still be in the midst of winter, there are a few dates in February that are certain to bring some warmth to all of us. Many of us will be spending time with loved ones on February 14 for Valentine's Day, as it is a great day to express our gratitude to those who are important to us. The focus of this month's message; however, is on another date aimed at brightening people's days.

Random Acts of Kindness Day is observed worldwide on February 17, and encourages us to perform small, unexpected acts to spread positivity and build goodwill. I am sure we have all heard of or experienced the ripple effect that occurs when the person at the front of the Tim Horton's drive-through pays for the order behind them. This "pay it forward" act tends to be repeated over and over again as recipients continue to share this experience and pay for the orders of those who follow.

On my walks around Hawkwood, I often observe random acts of kindness that bring a smile to my face. We have some talented artists in the community who display seasonal artwork on a fence next to Hawkwood's dog park. Others paint rocks and hide them around the neighbourhood for others to discover. On big snow days, our neighbour uses his bobcat to clear the road on our block. Children in the community use their sidewalk chalk to leave nice messages for those who pass by. This past December, students from one of our community schools made door hangers and delivered them to homes around the community to spread good cheer.

The great thing about random acts of kindness is they need not be big to leave a lasting and positive effect. If you are interested in participating in Random Acts of Kindness Day around Hawkwood on February 17, here are some suggestions to get you started:

Help a neighbour: shovel snow, arrange to walk a neighbour's dog, or set up a child-minding exchange with other parents in the community.

Give a compliment: many Hawkwood residents volunteer in service to our community and rarely receive recognition from the folks who benefit from their time. If you see someone volunteering, express your gratitude. You can also email me a note and I'll gladly pass on your kind words.

Sign up to volunteer: the HCA is in need of many volunteers throughout the year to provide community-building programs and events. Visit our website, join the Hawkwood Community Connections Facebook page, and watch our social media channels to stay up to date.

Please send me an email at president@hawkwoodca.com if you have any questions, comments, or want to learn more about the HCA.

In gratitude and kindness,

Michele del Valle

YOUR CITY OF CALGARY

Help Reduce Single-Use Items Waste

by the City of Calgary

The best way to reduce single-use items waste is to stop using them whenever possible. Using less single-use items will help reduce garbage and litter. Calgary's new Single-Use Items Bylaw started January 16.

It focuses on waste reduction by encouraging Calgarians to avoid single-use items where practical, ask for items as needed, or choose reusable options. Businesses will be required to charge a minimum fee on new paper and reusable bags and provide foodware accessories (utensils, napkins, straws, chopsticks, etc.) by request only.

Calgarians can do their part by asking for only the bags and foodware accessories they need, and by bringing their own bag to avoid the fees. This bylaw applies to in-store, take-out, drive-thru, delivery, and online ordering. Learn more at calgary.ca/singleuse.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Here we are in February, and we're really excited for the events we're planning for the year. The CCA board and committees will be busy planning our quarterly seniors' events, our kid's Easter event, a new Beerfest event, the Parade of Garage Sales, Stampede, Movie in the Park, and much more. Please watch our website for more details: www.citadelca.ab.ca.

We've had to change the date of our Seniors' Fun and Games event. The new date will be Saturday, February 10, 2024. We hope you can join us.

The Citadel Community Association Hall is available to rent. If you are looking for a venue for a birthday, anniversary, or Christmas party, fill out the rental request form on the website at <https://www.citadelca.ab.ca/CCA/index.php/rentals/rental-inquiry>.

We are still looking for dedicated people in Citadel to join the CCA board to look after the Volunteer Coordinator position and the Communications position. If you're not interested in joining the board but still want to contribute to the community, you may consider joining one of our committees such as our Events Planning Committee or signing up to work at our casino fundraising event on March 21 and 22 at Pure Casino. Email vice_president@citadelca.ab.ca if you're interested in helping out.

Thank you always for your support.

Prairie Winds 4-H Club Update for February

by Abigail Dowler, Prairie Winds 4-H Club reporter

Another fun month of 4-H has gone by. We started off with our general meeting, and a club social that was planned by a few of our 4-H members. They learned a lot about hosting events from the party planning workshop. We played games, had a hot cocoa bar, and awesome prizes!

Continuing through the month, the Canine Project members went to the Alberta Animal Rescue Crew Society (AARCS) to help with cleaning, and we got a tour of their shelter. One of the highlights of the AARCS tour was getting to see some of the puppies. Our club also delivers a lot of dog supplies to the animal shelter as some of our Canine Members brought donations, and one even did a donation drive in their community.

Our Explore 4-H group also had the opportunity to learn all about Curling. We went to a curling rink and our host taught us what a slider is and how to curl. Once all the learning was done, we got to play some games and use the skills we learned.

This past month, our club also participated in multiple community service opportunities. This included donating new unwrapped toys for families at the Ronald McDonald House in Calgary for Santa Sacks. Many families also helped at the Bears paw Christmas Market this year, as the Bears paw Community has been supportive of our club and having a meeting place. As part of our fundraising, a small group of members set up decorations for the Christmas season at an office downtown. We had a very busy month with lots of fun projects!
