PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Although March is upon us, I'd like to reflect back on February.

We held a number of community events last month. The Jelly Bean Dance and Super Bowl viewing event allowed people from all ages to gather together for laughs and cheers under the roof of the community hall.

We also welcomed families through the building for the preschool open house. I'd like to thank our preschool teachers for their dedication and hard work as early educators for Haysboro's wee ones.

Also this month, the Haysboro Community Association has secured funding from a provincial grant allowing the Board to get around to some much need upgrades to our building and facilities. This is exciting news!

We've established a Facilities Committee. A reminder, the community members who are not already sitting board members are welcome to join and share feedback about some of these projects. Feel free to get in touch with me or another board member for more information.

If you get a spring break this month, enjoy! Take a moment to enjoy something green this month as well.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Thomas

Haysboro Seniors Social Club

The Haysboro Seniors Social Club meets on the fourth Thursday of the month (excluding July, August, and December) from 1:30 to 3:30 pm at the Haysboro Community Hall located at 1204 89 Ave SW.

The next meeting is Thursday, March 23.

There are no age or residency requirements. If you are looking for an afternoon out to visit with friends and neighbours (old and new) this is the place to come.

Every meeting features a short program - which may be a speaker or entertainer, etc. with plenty of time for socializing. Tea, coffee, and cookies are available for your enjoyment. Members will be contacted by phone or email closer to the meeting date with details of the program.

For further information, call Denise Palmer at 403-252-6453 or Doris Bessie at 403-457-2893.

Hope to see you on March 23!

Treaty 7 Land Acknowledgment

We acknowledge that the Haysboro Community Association is on Treaty 7 land—the traditional and ancestral territory of the Blackfoot Confederacy: Kainai, Piikani, and Siksika, as well as the Tsuu T'ina Nation and Stoney Nakoda First Nation. We acknowledge that this territory is home to the Métis Nation of Alberta, Region 3 within the historical Northwest Métis Homeland. We acknowledge the many First Nations, Métis, and Inuit who have lived in and cared for these lands for generations. We are grateful for the traditional Knowledge Keepers and Elders who are still with us today and those who have gone before us. We make this acknowledgement as an act of reconciliation and gratitude to those whose territory we reside on or are visiting.

Haysboro School

Haysboro School was looking great for the Haysboro Hanks Hootenanny and Winter Fest '23.

All prospective Kindergarten and School Families were welcomed into art decked halls for carnival games, food trucks, cotton candy served by Hank the Groundhog, and a celebration of school spirit.

A big thank you goes out to the amazing teachers and staff of Haysboro school, the parent and student volunteers, and the entire school community.

Haysboro Parent Council invites all school parents and guardians to attend our upcoming meetings, get informed, share ideas, plan events, have input on to how to allocate funds, and work with us to build school community and play our role in making Haysboro School a great place to learn!

Choosing a Meal Delivery Service

from the Better Business Bureau

Meal delivery services give consumers a more convenient way to make home-cooked dinners by delivering fresh, pre-measured ingredients and easy-to-follow recipes to your doorstep. But just like any other service, each company is different.

Pricing, ingredients, and preparation requirements vary greatly between services. You'll need to do some homework to pick the one that best meets your family's needs. If the appeal of a meal delivery subscription is learning new recipes and experimenting with ingredients, you might choose one company. But if your main interest is speed and simplicity, another may be a better fit.

The following tips will help select an ideal meal delivery service for your household:

- Research the delivery service. Ask friends and family, read reviews, and check BBB.org to learn about past customers' experiences.
- Set a budget and check the fine print. Pricing can vary from one company to the next. Make certain the service aligns with your budget. In addition, not all meal delivery services include shipping fees in their pricing – read the fine print.
- Know your skill level. Before committing to a plan, research what kind of cooking techniques you'll need to know. If a company's recipes require searing, roasting, and braising, do you know how? If not, make sure you have the time to learn new techniques.
- Consider ingredient quality. Not all companies offer organic, non-GMO, or free-range meal ingredients. If these are must-haves for your family, make sure the company offers them.
- Determine how much prep work you want. Some companies do more chopping and sauce-making than others. This seemingly small difference can make a big difference in how long each meal takes to make.
- Consider the customer service. If there is ever a problem – a missing recipe card or ingredient, for example – you want to know that you can count on customer service. Make sure there are clear, easy ways to contact the company, even late in the evening. Read the company's reviews and keep an eye out for any indication that customer service is lacking.

- Check the cancellation policy. Before making a decision to subscribe to meal delivery, understand the cancellation policy. Each company is different and some may have very strict policies.
- Be careful with personal information. Most food delivery services process payments online. Make sure the company is legitimate before offering up personal information such as financial information and address.
- Review BBB tips for shopping online. Since meal delivery services don't usually have brick and mortar storefronts, consider BBB's tips for smart shopping online.

EDITOR'S NOTE

by Fiona Swanson

Garry and I went to the Open House on February 6 at the Acadia Rec Center to learn more about the Heritage Area Plan. There were six tables, each with two or three city planners who were very willing to explain what was depicted on the maps. There was one for bike paths, one for walking paths- showing what exists, what will exist, and most likely what may never exist.

There was a map with what amenities exist now- including schools, halls, playgrounds, shopping areas, and green spaces.

At each table there were sticky notes to say what you like and don't like... a process which has happened many times over the last few years. There was good representation from Eagle Ridge who do not want infills, high rises, condos, or any high-density residences – perhaps you think the same for Haysboro.

We went there to get more information about the old YMCA lot on Heritage and Haddon Rd.

As we looked at the maps, we saw it designated as flex neighbourhood – which means if you have a good plan for a 4 to 12 storey building that includes main floor exterior entrances for a café, store, daycare, or other amenity, then you meet the criteria. Fortunately, through the development permit process– there is the opportunity for the community to comment and bring up any concerns before anything gets built.

One thing that was evident was lack of parking in some of these higher density areas. Which is understandable because the city is looking at Transit Oriented Development, cycling, and walking – but what they forget is that people like their vehicles. Case in point, Acadia; it has the Rec Centre with arena and 10 curling sheets, and meeting rooms. Across the street there is the Tennis Centre, and a high school – attend any activities at any of those places and you are fighting for a parking spot because you don't walk, or bike, or take the bus (unless you have no choice) to curling, or hockey.

I think it was very interesting to see Haysboro through the eyes of planners, but it also reminded me that change is going to happen whether I like it or not. The question is – will I just let it happen or will I help it happen? Only by helping can we have the community we would like to see.

If you would like to be a reporter of happenings in Haysboro, please contact Fiona at editor@haysboro.org.

HAYSBORO HAPPENINGS

Volunteers Make This Community Come Alive!

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the volunteers that help make this community buzz. No matter if you volunteer on the board, the rinks, cleaning up of green spaces, taking time to be at the casino, running a community event or a bottle drive, your time and help is greatly appreciated. Without you our community wouldn't have such wonderful meeting places, it wouldn't feel cared for and loved. So, from the bottom of our hearts, thank you for the time you put into Haysboro.

The fall of 2022 saw us start to bring back some old activities and some new. Come out to support our kids!

This year, we are also hoping to offer:

- Easter Egg Hunt in April
- Community Parade of Garage Sales in May
- Community Cleanup (May or June)
- Celebration of Community in September
- Halloween Haunted Hall
- Winter Clothing/Gear Upcycling event in October
- Winter Market in December

All of these events require volunteers to have them happen. Watch your emails and this space for volunteer sign ups. If you are interested in spearheading any of these, or have other ideas, please reach out to a board member or the Hall office (info@haysboro.org).

Also, March 4, 2023, is when preschool registration begins for the upcoming school year. See the website for more information.
