SECA President's Message

SECA is building a neighbourly community where residents feel a sense of belonging and community pride. Join us in this rewarding work!

After hosting many programs and events over the past couple of years, we are seeing signs of growing neighbourliness. Residents are making connections and having fun together! Thanks to all those who attended our community campfires in December, January, and February.

My heart was warmed recently by emails inquiring about volunteer opportunities. When a resident offers to get involved, it confirms for me that SECA is heading in the right direction.

Our next casino fundraiser will be this summer and we need a casino chair. This person will liaise with AGLC and the casino location as well as recruit volunteers. It may sound daunting, but there is an easy task list and we have a large list of willing volunteers to contact. The casino chair is not required to work a shift but may do so. Please email us if you are able to take on this important role. It's a great way to meet new people!

Last year's re-imagined Stampede Festival, co-hosted with our friends at South Gate Alliance Church, was a fabulous success. We learned a lot and this year's event promises to be even better. Returning will be the ever-popular Backroad Traveler Band and the Chinook Country Line Dancers. To get involved in the planning process or as an event volunteer, please email us. Plan to attend on June 24. Bring your friends and family members.

We hope to host a program for older children this summer. Stay tuned. Meanwhile, our children's programming is forging ahead with great success thanks to our three outstanding educators: Families in Nature, Adventure Play, and Art in the Park, all which happen monthly. Use the QR codes for more information and to register.

SECA is keen to create programs for the 55+ age group and our casino funds can support these programs. With a volunteer or two to help coordinate the programs, we could make them happen.

You'll be glad to know that we have been working with a local web designer, Gumbuddies. We'll be launching a new website in the next month or two, which will make life easier for our volunteers and for our residents. We can't wait!

We can serve you best when we are connected:
Visit our eight Little Free Libraries regularly to see posters about upcoming events.
Receive our e-newsletters by emailing info@shawneevergreen.ca.

Pig Beach

Major Cay, an island in the Bahamas, has been home to a colony of feral, swimming pigs for decades. No one knows for sure how they got there. Some suspect that the pigs were survivors of a shipwreck and swam ashore, while others believe they were put there by inhabitants of a neighbouring island who didn't want them living on their island.

Choosing a Meal Delivery Service

from the Better Business Bureau

Meal delivery services give consumers a more convenient way to make home-cooked dinners by delivering fresh, pre-measured ingredients and easy-to-follow recipes to your doorstep. But just like any other service, each company is different.

Pricing, ingredients, and preparation requirements vary greatly between services. You'll need to do some homework to pick the one that best meets your family's needs. If the appeal of a meal delivery subscription is learning new recipes and experimenting with ingredients, you might choose one company. But if your main interest is speed and simplicity, another may be a better fit.

The following tips will help select an ideal meal delivery service for your household:

- Research the delivery service. Ask friends and family, read reviews, and check BBB.org to learn about past customers' experiences.
- Set a budget and check the fine print. Pricing can vary from one company to the next. Make certain the service aligns with your budget. In addition, not all meal delivery services include shipping fees in their pricing – read the fine print.
- Know your skill level. Before committing to a plan, research what kind of cooking techniques you'll need to know. If a company's recipes require searing, roasting, and braising, do you know how? If not, make sure you have the time to learn new techniques.
- Consider ingredient quality. Not all companies offer organic, non-GMO, or free-range meal ingredients. If these are must-haves for your family, make sure the company offers them.
- Determine how much prep work you want. Some companies do more chopping and sauce-making than others. This seemingly small difference can make a big difference in how long each meal takes to make.

- Consider the customer service. If there is ever a problem – a missing recipe card or ingredient, for example – you want to know that you can count on customer service. Make sure there are clear, easy ways to contact the company, even late in the evening. Read the company's reviews and keep an eye out for any indication that customer service is lacking.
- Check the cancellation policy. Before making a decision to subscribe to meal delivery, understand the cancellation policy. Each company is different and some may have very strict policies.
- Be careful with personal information. Most food delivery services process payments online. Make sure the company is legitimate before offering up personal information such as financial information and address.
- Review BBB tips for shopping online. Since meal delivery services don't usually have brick and mortar storefronts, consider BBB's tips for smart shopping online.
