A Small Act of Kindness Can Change a Day

by Rebecca Pink, Registered Provisional Psychologist

Kindness may seem like a simple gesture, but I believe that it's one of the most powerful things we can offer another human being and ourselves.

We live in a world that moves quickly. We are often rushing from one responsibility to the next, reacting instead of pausing, making assumptions instead of asking questions. It's easy to forget that every person we encounter is carrying a story that we know nothing about.

The person that seems impatient may be overwhelmed. The friend who's been quiet may be grieving or dealing with things privately. The parent who appears distracted may be carrying worries they haven't shared with anyone. Even the people who seem to have it together may be quietly fighting battles no one else can see. The truth is that we are all living complex realities. That is why kindness matters so much.

Kindness isn't about having the perfect words or fixing someone else's problems. Sometimes it's a smile, a little extra patience, a warm greeting, a great big hug, or choosing compassion over criticism. Sometimes it's simply giving someone the benefit of the doubt and being open to their perspective and being aware of subjective realities. Perhaps the person who needs that kindness today is you.

We can be incredibly generous with others while being our harshest critic. What if we extended ourselves the same grace we so willingly offer those we love, respect, and care for? Imagine what could happen if each of us choose kindness first. Every person is carrying a story and lived experiences that we may never fully understand. We may not know what someone else is carrying, but we can always decide how we show up. Kindness, no matter how small, has a way of reaching further than we realize. Sometimes the smallest moments of compassion are the ones that stay with us the longest.

Take good care.

Thank You, Casino Volunteers!

Apple Crisp

by S. Law

If you have had the chance to stop by your local Farmers' Market, I'm sure you've seen an abundance of apples. What better way to deal with such an overhaul then by making something delicious. Personally, my favourite way of using fresh apples is making apple crisp. It's easy, requires almost no tools, and is always a hit. If you've got some apples to spare, why not give it a try!

Ingredients

Filling:

- 2 cups of apples, sliced or chopped
- ½ cup of white sugar
- 2 tablespoons of cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon of nutmeg

Base/Topping:

- 1+1/2 cups of rolled oats
- 1 cup of flour
- 1/4 cup of brown sugar
- ½ cup of butter or margarine
- 1 teaspoon of salt

Directions

1. Preheat your oven to 425°F degrees and prepare a 9 x 9-inch baking pan.
2. Begin by washing and cutting your apples into thin slices or small chunks. There is no need to peel them unless desired. Place all the apples in a bowl with your white sugar, cinnamon, and nutmeg. Massage everything together until your apples are well coated. If the mixture seems too dry you can add a teaspoon of lemon juice to add a bit more liquid.
3. In another bowl, combine your oats, flour, and salt.
4. Take your butter or margarine and tear it into chunks overtop of the mixture. Begin crumbling the butter between your fingers, turning the dry ingredients into a slightly wet mixture.
5. Press around 1/3 of the oat mixture into the bottom of your pan. Press very firmly to create a solid base.
6. Pour the apples into the pan and spread evenly.
7. Taking the remainder of your oat mixture, add the brown sugar and mix gently, do not fully combine, the lines of brown sugar are what caramelize on top of your crisp.
8. Add the rest of the oat mixture to the top of your crisp, it doesn't need to be pressed, just evenly distributed across the top.
9. Bake in the oven for 30 to 45 minutes until golden and bubbling. Remove it from the oven and let it rest for at least 20 minutes. Serve with vanilla ice cream, whipped cream, or anything else of your choosing!
