Don't Be Shy, Give Us a Try

We hope you all have an awesome summer, and we know you plan on taking on a lot of projects starting this fall. So, if you want to be part of an awesome team and to meet all the public office representatives, you should consider joining the New Brighton Community Association Board.

We are looking for people who are willing to volunteer their time while learning new things and expanding their network, people who want to make a difference in the community. One voice or one rant on social media will not get anything done but if you really want to make a difference for you and for the people around you, join our team and get a stronger voice.

They say volunteering is good for your soul, so why not make a difference here, in your community? Send us a line at contact@ournewbrighton.ca and let's take it from there.

Summer Skies in New Brighton

Article provided by our student correspondent Nicholas N.

Have you taken a moment to look outside this summer? And I mean really look outside - pay attention to the way the clouds move, the way the wind blows, and the colours in the sky? If you find yourself in New Brighton, you'll be treated to some of the most breathtaking skies imaginable. As the sun fades into the night, the sky is painted with hues of orange and dark blue, creating a magical, almost surreal atmosphere. Nightly walks along the bell tower pond are an amazing experience, as every night is different, with the rippled pond reflecting the sky's early colours.

As the night progresses, the skies remain orange and blue, offering a perfect backdrop for the bell tower and any photo subjects. After sunset, the real spectacle begins. Nightfall in New Brighton is a mesmerizing display, with the sky transforming into a canvas of reds, purples, and golds but not to the naked eye. If you are passionate about night photography, prepare yourself, the views are like nothing else. On rare occasions, you might catch a glimpse of the northern lights right from the bell tower, or even from your backyard.

On clear nights, the beauty doesn't fade. The night sky, free from city light pollution, reveals a stunning array of stars. The Big and Little Dippers often make an appearance, adding to the charm of our night skies. Whether it's dawn, dusk, or night, the skies of New Brighton never fail to captivate and inspire those who witness their beauty.

The Lemonade Stand is Here to Stay

With the help of a grant secured by a joint NBCA and NBRA application, we extended the new Tool Shed adding more tools, board games, and an awesome lemonade stand.

The lemonade stand is already in high demand in the community and the kids can have fun taking their first entrepreneurial steps. For details about how to rent it (it's free!), you can inquire at the Clubhouse or visit the 'Inventory' page on ournewbrighton.ca/tool-shed/ where you will see the Lemonade Stand on page four, with all the details.

If you don't know about our Tool Shed or you know but have never used it, take a look at the inventory and you will be surprised how many useful tools we have available for you.

Let's make the best of what is left of this summer.
