RESIDENT PERSPECTIVES

The Many Faces of Canada

by Danielle Robbertze

"My dream is for people around the world to look up and to see Canada like a little jewel sitting at the top of the continent." – Tommy Douglas

July 1, 1867, marks the day the British North America Act was decreed which set the way for the celebration of Canada Day. As an immigrant of Canada, it is always such a delight to see the diversity in culture, race, religion, and ethnicity being celebrated. I understand, as with any country, there is always room for improvement in establishing a truly democrat, equal society. However, I feel Canada is often a leader in this regard and an exemplary example of equity, diversity, and national pride.

Canada is not represented by only one face but by many. It is important to honour those who first called Canada home. The First Nations, Métis, and Inuit peoples have overcome significant adversity to shape the foundation of this beautiful country. Never giving up, they continue to impart their important cultural contributions all over the nation.

Canada is one of the most welcoming nations, with over 8 million immigrants according to 2021 statistics. This means that nearly one-quarter of Canada's population consists of immigrants or former immigrants (who have now obtained citizenship). Immigrants help shape the diverse fabric of Canada, contributing positively to its multiculturalism and fostering a culture of acceptance for all people.

Canadian citizens cannot be defined by just one race, ethnicity, or culture and this is something I find so fascinating and which I hope others do too. Throughout the year, there are so many festivals and gatherings that celebrate the diversity of Canada, and I know this will be no different on July 1.

Happy Canada Day to everyone who calls this wonderful jewel of a country home.

Heat Related Illness

by Alberta Health Services

EMS would like to remind everyone to stay safe in the heat and sun this season. While children and the elderly may be more susceptible to the effects of heat and sun, basic prevention measures should be taken by all to avoid a heat related illness during periods of hot and humid weather.

Heat Exhaustion

- Heat exhaustion can occur due to excessive fluid loss during periods of prolonged sweating in a hot and/or humid environment (indoors or outdoors).
- Patients may suffer headaches, weakness, fatigue, nausea/vomiting, thirst, chills, and profuse sweating.
- The patient is usually cold and damp to the touch and the skin may appear pale or dusky gray.

Heat Stroke

- Heat stroke is a medical emergency which, without prompt treatment, could be fatal.
- It occurs when the body can't cool itself naturally (e.g., perspiration). The body's temperature will continue to rise to dangerous levels.
- Due to severe dehydration and the inability to sweat, the patient may appear flushed, and skin may be hot and dry to the touch.

First Aid

- First aid for all heat related illness begins with removing or sheltering the patient from the hot environment.
- Remove excess, or tight-fitting clothing, and allow them to rest in a cool environment.
- If the patient is conscious and alert, provide suitable fluids such as water, juice, or a sports drink.

- If you are concerned, seek medical attention.

Prevention

- Stay well-hydrated by drinking plenty of water at all times.
- Be aware that excessive alcohol consumption will promote dehydration.
- Always wear a broad brimmed hat to keep the sun off your face and neck.
- Apply a broad spectrum, waterproof sunscreen with a minimum SPF of 30+, especially for children. The sun's UV rays peak between 11:00 am and 3:00 pm, even on cloudy days.
