A big thank you to everyone who came out to support our Christmas Toy Exchange! It was wonderful to see so many people take part in this great initiative by Brodeur Haus. We had 34 registered participants, six loads of donated toys, four full boxes delivered to Mamas for Mama to support families in need, and more than 30 families who shopped the exchange will now have free, gently loved toys for their children this Christmas. Thank you to Brodeur Haus (Michelle Brodeur) and Karen Arndt for organizing such a great event and to everyone who participated in making it a success! We plan to do it again next year!

Seniors Lunch and Learns

Our Seniors Lunch and Learns will be taking a short break over the holidays and return January 21 with a presentation on "Let's Talk Brain Health Changes" by Alzheimer Calgary. Registration is on our website. So keep an eye out for upcoming dates and topics!

Haysboro Winter Market

A huge thank you to everyone who helped make this year's Haysboro Winter Market such a success! We are so grateful to our organizers and volunteers who put in the time and effort to bring everything together, our wonderful vendors who filled the hall with great local products, and everyone in the community who came out to shop, support local businesses and enjoy the day.

A special thank you to Cheryl Ego and her team for organizing the used book sale, which was another huge success! It takes a lot of people working together to make events like this happen, and we truly appreciate everyone who contributed their time, energy and support. Thank you for making this such a great community event!

The Nutcracker

In 1892 Tchaikovsky premiered his third ballet, "The Nutcracker" in Saint Petersburg, and while in recent times it is know globally and considered a Christmas tradition for many people, the ballet was not well-loved upon release. In fact, it did not gain popularity until closer to the 1950s when companies began performing it annually, marketing it as a Christmas feature.

Recycle More This Holiday Season

by City of Calgary Waste and Recycling Services

Due to new upgrades at our recycling facilities, you can now recycle even more holiday waste this year. As you clean up after holiday gatherings, remember to put these items in your blue cart:

- Paper and plastic gift wrap
- Foam packaging
- Flexible plastic bags, wrappers, and food pouches
- Cardboard and shipping boxes
- Food and body aerosols, like cooking oil spray, whipped cream cans, and hairspray
- Metal food cans, glass jars, and plastic containers

Place all items empty, clean, and loose in your blue cart. Do not bag or bundle them.

Thank you for sorting right and helping keep more holiday waste out of the landfill!

Learn more at calgary.ca/holidaywaste.

Christmas Tree Composting

When the holidays are over, give your real Christmas tree a green goodbye by choosing one of the following options for composting.

Green Cart Pickup:

Remove all decorations (lights, tinsel, ornaments) and cut the tree into small pieces so it fits inside your green cart with the lid closed. Place any extra branches in a paper yard waste bag, rolled shut, and set it at least two feet away from your cart.

Drop-Off Site:

From December 26 to January 31, you can take your whole tree to a designated drop-off site. You can find the location closest to you at calgary.ca/christmastree. Please ensure all decorations have been removed and do not wrap or bag your tree when dropping off.

Fats, Oils, and Grease

Put fats, oils, and grease (FOG) in their place this holiday season. When FOG goes down the drain, it builds up in your pipes and can lead to messy and time-consuming sewer backups. Remember to cool it, scrape it and compost it instead. Learn more at calgary.ca/protectyourpipes.

Presence, Not Presents: What Does Christmas Really Mean?

by Rebecca Pink

There's a certain feeling that comes with Christmas. The lights begin to appear and twinkle, familiar traditions find their way back into our every day, and there's an excitement in the air that makes it feel like a little magic is just around the corner. As a mom, there is nothing quite like seeing the season through my daughters' eyes and finding so much joy in their anticipation, excitement, and creativity.

But I will admit, I'm sometimes a little slower to get there. I know, like so many of you out there, how much goes into creating that magic, and it can feel like a lot! The shopping, the planning, the decorating, the baking, and all the little things that somehow find their way onto the Christmas to-do list. We do all these things lovingly, but between the planning, shopping, wrapping, gatherings and countless little details, December can quickly become a season of doing rather than being.

In my work, I have the privilege of hearing people's stories and learning about the things that matter most to them. I often see how expectations, perfectionism, and anxiety can make it difficult for people to slow down and enjoy the moments that they're working so hard to create. Maybe this Christmas one question worth asking ourselves is this: what are we doing because we genuinely love it and actually want to do it, and what are we doing because we feel we should.

For some, Christmas also carries grief, loneliness, financial pressures, or complicated family relationships. Maybe we can give ourselves permission to simplify a little, say no when we need to, and let go of the pressure to make everything perfect, and maybe more importantly, offer ourselves the same kindness and understanding we so often extend to the people we love.

Perhaps the magic of Christmas isn't something we need to work so hard to create, but something we allow ourselves to experience when we slow down and become more present. Maybe the greatest gift we can give ourselves and one another is a little less pressure, a little more grace, and the time to simply enjoy being together.

Wishing you a peaceful and meaningful holiday season.
