PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

September is a challenge for many of us to settle into the routine autumn. With the days getting shorter and the remnants of summer lingering, we may have to be coaxed to get back to the norms. This is also true for organizations such as our Association.

So, I was pleasantly surprised when most of the Board were able to attend our Board Meeting for September.

All indications based on those reports and discussions demonstrate that there is increased desire to continue to expand our offerings to the community. Keep checking back on our calendar on the webpage to see if there is something that you or your family could benefit from at www.shca.ca.

Following our meeting, The Ward 6 Councillor's office hosted all the presidents that are included in the Ward boundaries. I had consulted with our Board prior to meeting with John and his team. Not surprisingly, our concerns were mirrored within the collective presidents. While this was an introductory experience for our Councillor and his team it has paved the way for more collaboration between the Community Associations in working with Ward 6 and the City.

Preparations are now being made for next month's AGM. Tentatively, we have scheduled the date for November 18. The venue hasn't been confirmed, as of the writing of this article, so please check the webpage or social media for the location as we get closer to the date.

As I mentioned in the September issue, several board positions will need volunteers. Some have responded, and we are fitting them into appropriate positions. Can you help us by volunteering in some capacity? Reach out to me and I will discuss with you how you can fit either as a board member or by volunteering in some other capacity.

If you have other concerns or observations, you can reach out to me at president@shca.ca or info@shca.ca.

YOUR CITY OF CALGARY

Keeping Bus Zones Clear Near Schools

by The City of Calgary

School and transit buses rely on clear bus zones to safely load and unload passengers. When vehicles stop or park in bus zones, buses may be forced to stop in traffic, putting children and passengers at risk. Bus zones are designated safety areas that must remain clear at all times. Respecting these zones helps protect children, supports accessible transit, and keeps traffic moving predictably. Parking legally and avoiding bus zones—even for short stops—helps create safer school environments for everyone. Learn more: calgariyparking.com/safeschools.

The School Patrol Program helps improve safety in school zones by focusing on education first.

School zones are designed to protect children. Parking rules help:

- Keep crosswalks and corners visible.
- Reduce congestion and sudden stops.
- Support safer crossings for kids and families.

Parking safety and compliance officers attend schools during busy dropoff and pickup times to:

- Remind drivers about safe and legal parking.
- Explain why certain rules exist.
- Answer questions from parents, caregivers, and school communities.

With over 150 elementary schools across the city, patrols can't be everywhere every day. Unsafe parking, like blocking crosswalks, doubleparking or stopping in no parking zones makes it harder for drivers to see children and for children to see cars.

Beyond the Impression: Van Gogh and Post-Impressionism

by Kristina Quapp

Van Gogh is an artist that needs no introduction, but the style of his work is a different story. Vincent's style is commonly mislabelled as impressionist, where the more accurate classification would be post-impressionist. Impressionism is a 19th-century art movement that featured a strong focus on lighting, thick brush strokes, unblended colours, and everyday modern subjects painted outdoors (en plein air). As most art movements do, impressionism built upon the foundations of the realist movement which took place about 20 to 30 years prior. Realist painters preferred working en plein air as it allowed them to capture natural light and unvarnished everyday life, while pushing back on traditional academy standards that forced what some considered artificial compositions. While both art styles feature an emphasis on lighting and capturing the environment, impressionists did not focus as heavily on the realistic details.

Though Van Gogh's work certainly captures elements of impressionism such as thick brush strokes and vivid colours, his work often pushed the boundaries of impressionism. For example, Claude Monet, the founder of the impressionist movement, features large brush strokes, but the lighting remains grounded. As can be seen in Monet's 1875 oil painting, Woman with a Parasol, the piece is heavily stylized. Brush strokes are visible and the hues are vibrant, but the edge light and shadow in front of the woman tells the viewer that Monet focused on realism when capturing the atmosphere. In contrast, Vincent's The Starry Night—while it maintains impasto as Monet did—exhibits even more vibrant colour contrast and his sentiment at the time, represented in weighty brush strokes. It's often conferred that The Starry Night is symbolic of Van Gogh's inner turmoil, given the swirling and turbulent skies, thick impasto brush strokes, and the large looming cypress tree outlined in red.

Vincent's The Garden of Saint Paul's Hospital, often referred to as Leaf-Fall, features inspired aspects from traditional Japanese woodblock prints. Van Gogh implements an elevated perspective and tree trunks that are abruptly cut off by the lower and upper edges of the canvas, eliminating the horizon line. These artistic choices create a compressed sense of space similar to the arrangements found in Japanese print designs.

Like the changing landscape around him, Van Gogh's work had moved beyond simply capturing a fleeting impression of the world. His colours became bolder, his brushwork more expressive, and his paintings increasingly shaped by emotion and personal interpretation. This October, as the leaves begin to fall, perhaps take a moment to look at the world around you—not only as it appears, but through the impression it leaves on you.

Halloween Safety

by Alberta Health Services

As a supporter of Calgary's Child Magazine's Partners for Safety initiative, Emergency Health Services (EHS) Alberta would like to remind parents and trick-or-treaters of important Halloween safety tips as October 31 approaches.

Partners for Safety vehicles will be out patrolling communities on Halloween night to provide a visible safety resource for parents and trick-or-treaters.

Trick-or-Treaters

- Remember: all regular pedestrian rules still apply. Be sure to cross the road at marked crosswalks or at well-lit corners. It is safest to work your way up one side of the street and then cross once to the other side.
- You may choose to avoid houses that are not well lit. Do not accept rides from strangers or enter any home where you feel unsafe.
- Let your parents know where you are going and what route you plan to take. Let them know if you will be late returning home.

Parents

- Be certain that an adult accompanies young trick-or-treaters. Older children should stay in groups.
- Predetermine the boundaries for trick-or-treating and establish a time for children to return home.
- Advise children not to eat anything until they return home. Dispose of any items that have been tampered with or are not properly wrapped.

Costumes

- Choose brightly coloured costumes that are highly visible. Adding reflective tape to costumes can further increase visibility.
- Consider sending your children with a flashlight for additional safety and visibility.
- When purchasing or making costumes, look for materials and accessories labelled flame-resistant.
- All costume accessories, such as sticks, rods, or wands, should be soft and flexible, with no sharp edges.
- Consider using hypoallergenic makeup instead of masks that may impair breathing or vision.
- Be sure costumes are loose enough to be worn over warm clothing, but not so long that they become a tripping hazard. Costumes should not extend below your child's ankles.

- Ensure your child is wearing adequate footwear that takes the weather conditions and walking into consideration.

MLA Calgary-West

Mike Ellis

234 – 333 Aspen Glen Landing SW

✉ calgary.west@assembly.ab.ca

As MLA for Calgary-West, my focus remains on serving the residents of our wonderful constituency. I appreciate opportunities to meet and share conversations with you.

Recently, I met a remarkable Calgary-West constituent. Prior to moving to Calgary, Alan Nutall lived in St. Albert for over 40 years where he was well known as an active, talented, community participant and award recipient within the arts community. A renowned pen and watercolor artist, Alan draws detailed historical buildings and often adds human figures with his personal touch of whimsy. Several pieces of Alan's works that hold historical significance of sites located within our constituency can be admired in my constituency office.

Alberta again is leading Canada's economy. Alberta has captured 81.2 per cent of every new job created in Canada from January through July 2026. Such benchmarks are achieved through strong leadership, the lowest taxes in the country, reduced red tape, and a welcoming investment structure.

Recently, Alberta announced the government's updated 2026-27 fiscal projections, updating the year-end forecast from an initial $9.4 billion deficit to a $2 billion surplus. This is due largely to a $9.7 billion increase in expected resource revenues.

This fiscal update reports a revenue increase of $11.7 billion for the fiscal year, compared with the UCP's initial projections in March. Government expenses are also set to rise compared to initial estimates, increasing by $315 million.

Finance Minister Jason Nixon: "Alberta has been given an opportunity, and Alberta's government will not waste it. Alberta's path forward will be built on our commitment to protect the services Albertans count on, keep spending under control, and manage taxpayer dollars with the discipline this moment calls for – so Alberta remains strong not just today, but for generations to come."

As Albertans, we have many blessings for which we are grateful.

"Happy Thanksgiving" to you and your loved ones.
