PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It seems that summers get shorter and shorter every year. How was your summer? Did you have to make changes because of weather/fire or other factors? If that was the case, I hope that you were successful and you and your family was able to refresh.

Over the course of the summer, your Association has been busier than we have been before for the summer season. In addition to the programs offered by us and our partners we have been offering other recreational opportunities. Additionally, we have expanded our booking opportunities for the facilities located at 489 Sienna Park Drive SW. You will find details on our website, www.signalhill.ca.

Last month, 28 neighbours spent two days volunteering at Cowboys Casino and secured our principal source of funding for the next eighteen months. A big thank you to those and all the other volunteers who participated over the summer.

Perhaps you are settling down in September to a routine that starts in the fall. Back to school or work. I always find the fall to be the start of new beginnings. My granddaughter is starting grade three this year. Yes, she is excited to start the new year. For your Association, we too will start a new year. Our year-end was August 31. The first Board Meeting for this season is September 9. The passing of budgets, program reviews, and the initial planning stages for our AGM to be held in November and December will be undertaken.

In our meeting there will be several Board positions opening. No one reached out to the Nominations Committee. Please consider if you can help and would like to give your input for our community.

If you have other concerns or observations, you can reach out to me.

Here's how you can contact me: President@shca.ca or info@shca.ca.

Apple Crisp

by S. Law

If you have had the chance to stop by your local Farmers' Market, I'm sure you've seen an abundance of apples. What better way to deal with such an overhaul then by making something delicious. Personally, my favourite way of using fresh apples is making apple crisp. It's easy, requires almost no tools, and is always a hit. If you've got some apples to spare, why not give it a try!

Ingredients

Filling:

- 2 cups of apples, sliced or chopped
- ½ cup of white sugar
- 2 tablespoons of cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon of nutmeg

Base/Topping:

- 1½ cups of rolled oats
- 1 cup of flour
- ¼ cup of brown sugar
- ½ cup of butter or margarine
- 1 teaspoon of salt

Directions

1. Preheat your oven to 425°F degrees and prepare a 9 x 9-inch baking pan.
2. Begin by washing and cutting your apples into thin slices or small chunks. There is no need to peel them unless desired. Place all the apples in a bowl with your white sugar, cinnamon, and nutmeg. Massage everything together until your apples are well coated. If the mixture seems too dry you can add a teaspoon of lemon juice to add a bit more liquid.

3. In another bowl, combine your oats, flour, and salt.
4. Take your butter or margarine and tear it into chunks overtop of the mixture. Begin crumbling the butter between your fingers, turning the dry ingredients into a slightly wet mixture.
5. Press around 1/3 of the oat mixture into the bottom of your pan. Press very firmly to create a solid base.
6. Pour the apples into the pan and spread evenly.
7. Taking the remainder of your oat mixture, add the brown sugar and mix gently, do not fully combine, the lines of brown sugar are what caramelize on top of your crisp.
8. Add the rest of the oat mixture to the top of your crisp, it doesn't need to be pressed, just evenly distributed across the top.
9. Bake in the oven for 30 to 45 minutes until golden and bubbling. Remove it from the oven and let it rest for at least 20 minutes. Serve with vanilla ice cream, whipped cream, or anything else of your choosing!

Glover's Silkmoth— Hyalophora gloveri

by Kristina Quapp

The Glover's silkmoth belongs to the giant silk moth family, Saturniidae. These moths are quite large with a wingspan ranging from 80 to 100 mm, making it one of the largest moth species native to North America. It's commonly found in the Rocky Mountain states, western parts of the northern Great Plains, and Canadian prairie provinces.

Glover's silkmoth starts life as an egg for about one to two weeks. After hatching, the larva grows into a plump, yellow-green caterpillar, notable for its colourful red and yellow bumps that are tipped with small black spikes. In this stage, they can reach up to three to four inches in length. Their primary focus during these six to eight weeks of life is eating. These green critters must gather massive amounts of protein and energy to fuel their metamorphosis, often increasing their body mass thousands of times! Their primary diet includes trees and shrubs such as willows, chokecherry, silverberry, wild roses, and buffalo berry.

Once fully grown, the caterpillar spins a tight, silk cocoon on the twigs of its host plant. It remains in this stage for winter, and into the following spring, lasting about ten months in total. The Glover's silkmoth will emerge in early to mid-summer. Unlike its caterpillar counterpart, once the moth metamorphosizes it does not eat. Nor does it have a functioning mouth! These adult silkmoths only live for one to two weeks, with their sole purpose being to find a mate and lay eggs. While the population status of this moth is stable, given its short lifespan they aren't commonly seen. Though, spotting a moth is widely considered a sign of good luck and positive transformation! So, keep your eyes peeled as the warm weather begins to taper in and around Calgary.

September brings many exciting opportunities. With the anticipation of beginning the 2026-2027 school year, students, parents, and school staff are focusing on renewed learning opportunities and a return to more regular routines. Together, we can use our best efforts to support our youth as they develop and expand their knowledge, skills, and independence. I extend my best wishes to all for a happy, successful school year!

Recently, townhalls were hosted regarding the building of noise mitigation infrastructure for residents near Stoney Trail. These sessions invited leaders from affected communities to engage with planners on timelines and strategy. I remain committed to working with community members in constructing noise mitigation strategies. I will work with Minister Dreeshen to ensure that these projects move forward.

Public safety remains a top priority for Albertans and the provincial government. It is encouraging to see that our proactive stance on tackling gangs and organized crime is setting a standard for the rest of the country. Alberta has been a leading voice in the fight against firearms, drug trafficking, and money laundering.

Recently, within my ministerial role I experienced a highly productive visit to Quebec. From attending a major organized crime announcement and touring the provincial emergency centre, to having conversations about security, this trip has been essential to strengthening our intergovernmental collaboration.

The Alberta government's recent $8 million investment into local police services, the RCMP, and ALERT, specifically designed to target gangs and extortion, has demonstrated that decisive actions help to keep our communities safe.

Seeing other provinces, including Quebec, follow Alberta's lead in prioritizing these critical investments is a testament to the effectiveness of our approach. By sharing intelligence and strengthening enforcement, we are building a more unified, resilient response to organized crime across Canada.

Please contact my constituency office should you have comments and concerns in regard to constituency related matters.

Alberta Separation Referendum

As Albertans prepare to vote in the upcoming referendum on Alberta's future within Canada, I believe it is important to clearly state my position: I support Alberta remaining in Canada.

Like many Albertans, I recognize the legitimate frustrations that have fuelled support for separation. Concerns about equalization, unfair representation in Parliament, excessive federal regulation, and a perceived lack of respect for Alberta are real and deserve attention. Alberta has contributed significantly to Canada's prosperity and Albertans rightly expect acknowledgement and fair treatment in return.

However, I do not believe separation is the solution.

As a landlocked province, Alberta relies on access through other jurisdictions to reach global markets. Independence would not automatically solve challenges around pipelines and tidewater access. Instead, Alberta would need to negotiate with Canada as a separate country, likely weakening our position and creating new barriers for trade and energy exports.

Claims that separation would dramatically reduce taxes are also uncertain. While federal taxes would no longer be paid to Ottawa, Alberta would assume major new responsibilities, including national defence, border security, tax collection and foreign relations. These costs, combined with the loss of economies of scale, could offset many anticipated savings.

There is also significant uncertainty regarding Alberta's future relationship with the United States and the broader international community. Such risks should not be dismissed lightly.

Importantly, Alberta already enjoys substantial autonomy within Confederation. Successive provincial governments have demonstrated the ability to challenge federal policies and defend Alberta's interests while remaining part of Canada.

Canada is not perfect, but it remains one of the most stable, prosperous, and respected countries in the world. Rather than abandoning Confederation, we should continue working to address Alberta's legitimate concerns and build a stronger future together. I firmly believe Alberta's best days remain ahead, as part of Canada.
