Celebrate Neighbour Day!

by The City of Calgary

Celebrate Neighbour Day in your community on Saturday, June 21! Get involved in this year's event by gathering with your neighbours for a block party or community event. In addition to the many neighbourhood events taking place across the city on June 21, Sport Calgary's All Sport One Day will also give children a free opportunity to try a new sport, while collecting donations of used sports equipment.

Neighbour Day is our city's annual celebration of community spirit and connection. Held on the third Saturday in June, Neighbour Day is a step toward creating welcoming and inclusive communities where neighbours connect and belong every day of the year. Get to know your neighbours—whether through a friendly chat or a helping hand, small connections build stronger communities and a greater sense of belonging and wellbeing.

Show us how you're celebrating! Share your photos on social media using #YYCNeighbourDay.

We Dream in June

by Garth Paul Ukrainetz

The month of June can't come too soon
The saying goes inside the staff rooms
Most teachers' tanks are running empty
Low fuel within, they're all teached out

Ignition sequence slowly starting
Young astronauts awaiting lift off
Dreaming, gazing out the windows
The students now in countdown mode

Long year it was for sharpened minds
10 months of grinding education
The pencils short, good patience shorter
Toss learning's shavings to the wind

Yes, summer's here, it's time to fly
Fold lesson plans like paper airplanes
Let's rocket launch to outer space
New frontiers bold beyond the schoolyard

Calgary Public, Calgary Catholic
Deep down it's true we're all the same
We dream in June of summer breezes
That blow the cares of school away

The Art of Finding Work: Which Candidate Would You Hire? A or B?

by Nick Kossovan

Speaking from personal experience, a bad hire isn't a good look. The last thing you want is to hear, "Who the hell hired Bob?" and have your hiring judgment questioned.

The job seeker who's empathetic to the employer's side of the hiring desk, which controls the hiring process, is rare.

One of the best things you can do to enhance your job search is to practice perspective-taking, which involves seeing things from a different perspective.

It's natural for employers to find candidates who have empathy and an understanding of their challenges and pain points more attractive. Candidates like these are seen as potential allies rather than individuals only looking out for themselves. Since most job seekers approach employers with a 'what's in it for me' mindset, practicing perspective-taking sets you apart.

"If there is any one secret of success, it lies in the ability to get the other person's point of view and see things from that person's angle as well as from your own."
- Henry Ford.

Perspective-taking makes you realize that from an employer's POV hiring is fraught with risks employers want to avoid; thus, you consider what most job seekers don't: How can I present myself as the least risky hiring option?

Here's an exercise that'll help you visualize the employer's side of the hiring process.

Candidate A or B?

Imagine you're the Director of Customer Service for a regional bank with 85 branches. You're hiring a call centre manager who'll work onsite at the bank's head office, overseeing the bank's 50-seat call centre. In addition to working with the call centre agents, the successful candidate will also interact with other departments, your boss, and members of the C-suite leadership team; in other words, they'll be visible throughout the bank.

The job posting resulted in over 400 applications. The bank's ATS and HR (phone interview vetting, skill assessment testing) selected five candidates, plus an employee referral, for you to interview. You aim to shortlist the six candidates to three, whom you'll interview a second time, and then make a hiring decision. Before scheduling the interviews, which will take place between all your other ongoing responsibilities, you spend five to ten minutes with each candidate's resume and review their respective digital footprint and LinkedIn activity.

In your opinion, which candidate deserves a second interview?

Candidate A: Their resume provides quantitative numbers—evidence—of the results they've achieved. (Through enhanced agent training, reduced average handle time from 4:32 minutes to 2:43 minutes, which decreased the abandon rate from 4.6% to 2.2%.)

Candidate B: Their resume offers only opinions. ("I'm detail-oriented," "I learn fast.")

Candidate A: Looks you in the eye, has a firm handshake, smiles, and exudes confidence.

Candidate B: Doesn't look you in the eye, has a weak handshake.

Candidate A: Referred by Ariya, who's been with the bank for over 15 years and has a stellar record, having moved up from teller to credit analyst and is tracking to become a Managing Director.

Candidate B: Applied online. Based on your knowledge, they did nothing else to make their application

GAMES & PUZZLES

Guess the Year!

1. The Canadian dollar was established across Canada.
2. Canada sent its first national team to the summer Olympics in St. Louis.
3. Women get the right to vote.
4. Alberta becomes a province of Canada.
5. The first railway opens in Canada.
6. Terry Fox begins his Marathon of Hope.

more visible. (e.g., reached out to you or other bank employees)

Candidate A: Well-educated, grew up as a digital native, eager and energetic. Currently manages a 35-seat call center for a mid-size credit union. They mention they called the bank's call centre several times and suggest ways to improve the caller experience.

Candidate B: Has been working in banking for over 25 years, managing the call center at their last bank for 17 years before being laid off eight months ago. They definitely have the experience to run a call centre. However, you have a nagging gut feeling that they're just looking for a place to park themselves until they can afford to retire.

Candidate A: Has a fully completed LinkedIn profile (picture, eye-catching banner) packed with quantifying numbers. It's evident how they were of value to their employers. Recently, they engaged constructively with posts and comments and published a LinkedIn article on managing Generations Y and Z call centre agents. Their Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter/X accounts aren't controversial, sharing between 'Happy Birthday' and 'Congratulations' messages, their love of fine dining, baseball, and gardening.

Candidate B: Their LinkedIn profile is incomplete. The last time they posted on LinkedIn was seven months ago, ranting about how the government's latest interest rate hike will plunge the country into a deep recession. Conspiracy theories abound on their Facebook page.

Candidate A: Notices the golf calendar on your desk, the putter and golf balls in the corner, and a photograph of Phil Mickelson putting on the green jacket at the 2010 Masters hanging on your wall. While nodding towards the picture, they say, "Evidently, you golf. Not being a golfer myself, what made you take up golf, which I understand is a frustrating sport?"

Candidate B: Doesn't proactively engage in small talk. Waits for you to start the interview.

Which of the above candidates presents the least hiring risk? Will likely succeed? Will show your boss, upper management, and employees you know how to hire for competence and fit?
